I recently I read the Book of Job, that mom had bookmarked in Grandma Emma Kraft's Bible.

I wrote that the Mayans and Nostradamus could not forecast the exponential increased in man's intelligence

And I did this crap because of my birthday...

I continue to research and progress, and this is a course I feel I must complete.

I read something about Copernicus and his improvement of Astrology and concluded that the Mayans did

So, the OFFSET of transit of Planets, Star's is affected and Venus is involved.

So, I concluded that this was like programming a IBM S/360 in BAL Basic Assembly Language with a Bas

So, I concluded that the Mayans had a math rounding error, I always had... ;)
